Hello all, Pastor Dan here. It's been a while since I have sat down and written one of these things, but I was thinking to myself the other day that our Parish is lacking a key resource for the month of October. The faithful have been waiting for pastoral guidance on a subject that becomes more relevant every passing day, and so I present to you a short list of movies that I plan on watching this October for my annual horror marathon. Remember readers, I only provide this service because of the great demand that I have just recently become aware of. I advise the faint of heart to read no further, but for those who choose to read on, prepare yourselves for the spookiest list of movies ever compiled by a Lutheran Pastor in Northwest Minnesota.

- Abbott & Costello Meet Frankenstein (1948) – This was the first Dracula movie I ever saw, the first Frankenstein movie I ever saw, and the first Wolfman movie I ever saw. My addiction to both monsters and silliness starts here.
- The Wolfman (1941) – The touching story of an English nobleman whose son returns home after many years abroad, only to discover that the son has transformed into a large American from Oklahoma. As a side plot, it is also discovered that the son occasionally turns into a wolf.
- Son of Dracula (1943) – Did you know that Dracula had a son!? Well, you do now. Count Alucard, also a large American from Oklahoma, stalks his prey not in the mountains of Transylvania, but in the swamps outside of New Orleans.
- Love at First Bite (1979) – Count Dracula gets kicked out of Romania by a Communist Regime and is forced to move into an efficiency apartment in New York City. Dracula finds romance, the modern convenience of Blood Banks, and Sherman Hemsley from The Jeffersons.
- The Omen (1976) – A classic tale of two parents asking themselves that question that so many have asked before: "Is my child evil?"
- Arachnophobia (1990) – Few movies on this earth can make me squirm in my seat like this one. Also, John Goodman is awesome in it.

Oh, and one more thing. It struck me the other day when I was thinking about confirmation, that the magical age of 14/15 may not be the ideal time for all of us to take our baptismal promises upon ourselves. I personally remember almost none of my confirmation class (sorry Dad), and if I did not teach the subject, I would probably be in line for a bit of a refresher course. So if there are any out there who find themselves wanting to be confirmed as an adult, we can do that! Even if you were already confirmed but would like to dust some old cobwebs away and possibly deepen your faith a bit, don't be shy, contact Pastors Dan and Katie!

Faaberg Announcements

Faaberg Announcements – October 2025

Ushers – for October are Jeff and Tia Gullickson.

WELCA - will meet on Thursday, October 2 at 9 am. Devotions: Lynda Sevald. Quilting will follow meeting on Thursday and continue Friday, October 3 from 9 am to noon.

Potluck Dinner – to be held after worship services on Sunday, October 12. Both serving groups to help with setup and cleanup.

Afternoon Bible Study – will be held Monday, October 13 at 1:30 pm with Peggy Ystenes leading the study.

Confirmation Sunday – October 26. Confirmands are Brennan Gullickson, Olivia Harstad and Chloe Olson.

October 5th – Confirmation day at Maple Lake! We have 6 young people who will be confirming, affirming, their faith in Jesus Christ before their family, friends and church family. Confirmands are: Macy Petry, daughter of Tim & Angie; Paisley Raaen, daughter of Dusty & Elissa; Brynn Bolstad, daughter of Josh & Kari; Aubryn Johnson, daughter of Jamie & Tracy; Katie Lunak, daughter of Matt & Karen, and Vincent Landsrud, son of Reid & Kashia. What a nice group of kids! It will be a privilege to be a part of their special day. God's blessings to each of them as they continue on their faith journey!

What else is going on? Hopefully, we go about doing what God wants us to do... to bring the gospel to our community and beyond. It was great to welcome back our Sunday school kids and to know they are learning about God's love every Sunday. I saw the boxed school kits in the entry, ready to send off to Lutheran World Relief....spreading God's love beyond our neighborhood. The women of the ELCA recently held their annual convention in Alexandria, learning how God can use each of us to share His love and care for the less fortunate. So, we are thankful for the ordinary and not so ordinary opportunities we have to share the gospel.

Our next council meeting will be October 15th at 7:00 p.m. Did you know your council members are praying for each and every member? Hopefully, this will become an ordinary practice!

Greeters and custodians for October are Maynard and Sheri Johnson. Thank you!

Sue Kronschnabel has sewn together a beautiful quilt for a fall raffle...extraordinary! Tickets will be $5.00 each or 5 tickets for $20.00. Watch your bulletins for more details!

That's all. Have a good month and stay alert to opportunities to grow in your faith!
